Dear Examiner Kuhns:

Transmitted herewith are all the items which we discussed for the preceding application except the newly executed Oath.

The inventor is traveling. I was informed by his office that he was in New York and that they would have him fax to me a newly executed Oath no later than this weekend.

His office must have had difficulty accomplishing this task because it is now just past midnight, and I have not received the newly executed Oath.

Later today I will contact the inventor's office in order to resolve this matter. Because of the lateness of the hour, I may be slightly later than usual in coming to my office again today.

Thank you for your consideration.
